The Pittsburgh Gazette.

FRIDAY, AUGUST 3, 1866.

THE Soldiers' Clymer Convention which assembled at Harrisburg on the 1st instant, was in keeping with all other kindred conclaves, a miserable farce. When will the copperheads learn that the soldiers have no affinity with them? In every case where soldiers friendly to rebels have been convened together they have displayed weak numerical force and the meeting has been a fizzle. Soldiers know their duty as well now as they did during the rebellion. They cannot kiss the rod which smote them; neither can they sustain the men who refused them succor and aid, while they faced and fought the foes of their government. The Soldiers' Convention of Pittsburgh was a terrible blow to the Copperheads. They have not yet recovered from its shock, although nearly every district of the State has put forth its best efforts to muster a squad of soldiers to endorse the Democratic nominee. The Democrats made a grand mistake during the rebellion, in extending their sympathies to the wrong side of the picket lines, and they should not now expect the brave boys in blue to wheel into their columns, in order to elevate to honor and power the northern rebel who begrudged them their hard tack while facing the foe.

CONGRESS having adjourned, it is next in order for the Representatives, and especially for such of them as have been renominated to meet their constituents in popular assemblies, and render an account of what has been done in the national council, what failed of being accomplished, and for what reasons. The enemies of the Congressional plan of reconstruction have been so diligent and unscrupulous in misrepresentating the temper and conduct of Congress, that, in addition to the ordinary reasons for conference with the people by the Representatives, special reasons of great potency exist. Let the Republican Congressmen meet the people, face to face, and present their side of the case for consideration. The fuller and more searching the discussion, the better and more enduring will be the results.

The State Committee cannot any too soon appoint and hold a mass meeting in each of the counties of the Commonwealth. We have so often witnessed the virtues of public discussion that we have unlimited faith in the efficacy of that instrumentality. We are not charmed with the idea of a still.

THE HOUSE BILL amending the Neutrality Laws failed in the Senate. Since then advices from London state that the new British Ministry has called the attention of Parliament to the utility of revising their Neutrality Laws. The first step towards a revision, which ought to be satisfactory on this side of the Atlantic, would be the payment for spoliations upon our commerce committed by the Anglo-rebel privateers. That done, if the British government desire to proceed in the work of conforming their laws to the progress of modern ideas, this country will meet them in a spirit of liberality. Otherwise our people will be apt to demand of Congress, at its next session, such a change in our laws as shall give the British the full advantages of the code by which they regulate their conduct towards us and towards all other people.

THE Philadelphia Age endeavors to create the impression that the loyal people of the North will avenge the massacre of New Orleans upon the delegates in attendance at the forthcoming mongrel Convention to assemble in that city. A guilty conscience needs no accuser, but there need be no fear felt. During the progress of the rebellion the Confederates practiced the most refined barbarities upon our gallant soldiers who fell into their hands, but the North did not swerve from her standpoint of charity and humanity in order to retaliate. So also now. The Radicals will not interfere during the invasion of the North by rebels, but will certainly await to see what sort of a mouse will be produced by the mountain in labor.

THE Boston Post, a democratic journal of high standing, mentions that "among the men already elected delegates to the Philadelphia Convention are a large number who fought for the Union during the war, and who were active in aiding the reelection of Mr. LINCOLN." Granted. But how many have been elected delegates who looked upon Mr. LINCOLN as a tyrant, and rejoiced when the great and good man fell at the foot of the assassin? And how many who fought against our Union during the rebellion, have been selected to participate in the gray back assembly?

AMONG the objectionable bills which failed to get through Congress was the one which donated fifty millions of dollars to the Mexican republican chiefs. This is so much cash saved to the Treasury.

Postponement.

We are compelled again to postpone our Concert. This is very unpleasant to us and also to our ticket holders. We are as anxious as our ticket holders to have our Concert come off. It is exceedingly expensive and troublesome. The second postponement of the United States Gift Concert at Chicago injured us very much. It induced a great many of our agents to believe that our enterprise would prove a complete failure. Hence a large number of them retained their reports until the "eleventh hour," and are to-day earnestly requesting us to receive them when the books should be closed. We don't like to expose agents who fail in making returns, and therefore defer our Concert till Saturday evening, August 4th, at City Hall, commencing at eight o'clock. Ticket holders must have patience. Impartial justice must be done to all concerned.

The Golden Key

That opens the mystery to the cure of every disease of the skin, whether of a scrofulous or other character, will be found in directing remedies to the purification of the blood. The blood which, as a river of life, nourishes and renews every organ of the body, and without which the whole human fabric would soon decay and perish. Every disease of the skin has its origin in some poisoned, or if you choose, morbid state of the blood. If the blood be pure, you will not have, you cannot have cancer, nor scrofula, nor white swelling, nor hip disease, nor ulcerated sore legs, nor fever sores, nor hives, nor scald head. No blotches, boils, pimples, rash, chaps, cracks, fissures, nor any of the pestilent brood which so greatly afflict humanity.

These are all the result of bad blood, and have their source in its corruption. The remedy that will cure them will be found in Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher. It acts with a more than talismanic power in restoring health and eliminating morbid matters from the blood. It invigorates the stomach and enables it to digest and make use of the food which is taken into it with the view to continue the functions of life. It enables the liver to secrete the bile from the blood, and removes all torpor and sluggishness of that organ. It empowers the spleen to take the acid properties from the nerves, matter which would otherwise be deposited upon the nerves in the shape of neuralgia and rheumatism. It cures dropsy and all diseases of the kidneys. It is the Tonic of Tonics, and if the cures that it has performed could be presented in a proper light before the community, there is not a family in Allegheny county that would not have a bottle of Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher. Ask for Dr. Keyser's Blood Searcher at 140 Wood street; and take no other. Price, one dollar per bottle; six bottles for five dollars. Sent by express to any part where an express runs upon receipt of the price.

Strength for the Exhausted.

Thousands die, as it were, inch by inch, of bodily weakness; for debility will kill as certainly, though not so quickly, as a raging fever. It is asked how the weak shall be made strong; the debilitated sustained and restored; the exhausted refilled with vital energy? We aver that of all invigorating preparations given by science to man, from the institution of the art of healing to the present hour, not one has wrought such wonders in the way of restoration as HOSTETTER'S CELEBRATED STOMACH BITTERS. This is indeed the tonic of tonics. As a revitalizing, strength-supporting, life-prolonging agent, the like of it is not to be found in the catalogue of medicines. Among the various articles used to arouse the dormant powers of nature, it stands alone—the great awakener of the paralyzed physique. It not only awakens the physical powers from a state of collapse and inanition, but it imparts permanent vigor to the muscular and nervous systems—reinforcing, as it were, both the stronghold and the outworks of vitality. The aged, the decrepid, the nervous, the broken-down of both of sexes, are recommended to try it. They will assuredly find it a present help in time of trouble.

Hostetter's Bitters

Are sold wholesale and retail at very low rates at Fleming's Drug and Patent Medicine Depot, No. 84 Market street, corner of the Diamond and Market, near Fourth street.

—A private letter from Washington mentions the serious illness of a literary gentleman of that city, his disease being pronounced to be "pen palsy." The affection derives its name from the fact that it is attributed to the use of the popular French copying ink, which contains arsenic. Both his hands and feet are badly swollen, and his health is so precarious that his physicians have prescribed abstinence from the further use of copying ink. This case should serve as a warning to those who use the fluid which has proved so deleterious in its effects.—Cincinnati Gazette.

—During the reign of Charles I, all English paper bore in water marks the royal arms. The Parliament under Cromwell made a jest of this; and, among other indignities to the memory of the King, it was ordered that the royal arms be removed from the paper, and the "fool's cap and bell" be substituted. These, in their turn, were of course removed at the Restoration. But paper of the size of the Parliament journal still bears the name of "foolscap."

—Mrs. Dr. Emily Gibson, a female physician weighing some two hundred and fifty pounds, who is at Natchez persuading the negroes that they have snakes in their legs, and charging them heavily for getting them out, was brought up before the County Court there the other day, and fined twenty-five dollars for obtaining money under false pretenses. The faculty did not gallantly step forward and pay the fine.

—It is said the king of the Sandwich Islands has a decided antipathy to everything American. He was called a "nagur" while travelling in this country some years since, and has never forgotten the affront.

The action of the Committee is regarded as an attempt to usurp the functions of the United States Convention, which assembles to-morrow.

A Santiago letter says: General Vega, with two hundred and fifty men and ample supplies, sailed from All Saints Bay, Lower California, on July 20th, supposed to be destined to some port in Sonora, a sufficient number of American officers accompanying the expedition to command five thousand troops, which are to be organized in Sonora.

In the absence of information about the new tariff, the Collector of Customs demands additional deposits for goods entered.

FROM PHILADELPHIA.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 2.—An attempt was made about twelve o'clock last night to kill a barber named Hall, at his residence at the corner of Fifth and Gaskill streets, by two negroes, who say they were employed by his wife, who promised them $60 for the job. The negroes jumped upon their victim while he was in the cellar. His cries for help brought him speedy assistance. He was severely cut in the head.

Ex-Alderman James T. Harmer was killed last night in a tavern in the lower part of the city, in a quarrel arising from a political discussion.

PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 2.—A week or ten days since a forged check for $150,000, was paid out at the First National bank to-day. The forger was captured at the depot on his arrival from Baltimore, with the entire amount of plunder in 5-20 bonds. He had in the interval married a wife in Baltimore and came thus far on his bridal trip.

PHILADELPHIA, August 2.—The report of the cholera at the Board of Health, up to noon, showed nine new cases, two of which were fatal.

The armed sentinels have been withdrawn from Municipal Hall.

Tampico advices report that the city is well fortified and prepared for a Liberal attack.

The French are fortifying Monterey. Matamoras is quiet. Trade in the Valley is resumed.

LATER.—Martial law has been withdrawn. Several members of the Convention have been indicted by the Grand Jury and arrested.

Philadelphia Convention Delegates.

MADISON, WIS., Aug. 2.—The Johnsonians met to-day to elect delegates to the Philadelphia Convention. The following delegates at large were elected: J. R. Doolittle, A. W. Randall and G. M. Robinson. The usual number of district delegates were also chosen. Some excitement was caused by the secession of one of the newly elected delegates, who declared himself opposed to sitting in conclave with such men as Vallandigham and Pendleton. After an exciting discussion the name of the offender was stricken from the list. Resolutions declaring in favor of the Administration of the President and his policy were passed. To-night the Convention is being addressed by Senator Doolittle and others.

ST. PAUL, MINN., August 2.—The Democratic Convention, to elect delegates to the Philadelphia National Union Convention, met here today, and elected the following delegates at large: Daniel S. Havana Advices—Matters in St. Domingo—Yellow Fever at Havana.

Information is received from St. Domingo that the Government has officially announced that hostilities with the rebel Generals had ceased, by virtue of an agreement with them. A general amnesty had been granted the residents who sustained General Baez's government, and all Generals who do not submit to the decree will be treated as traitors. The citizen General Pimentel, with several bodies of troops, had gone to the Northwestern frontier to clear out all detachments created by the policy of ex-President Baez. General Cabrae was going to Ceabo, where affairs are still in a bad state, to co-operate with Pimentel.

There were twenty-eight cases of yellow fever and fifty-eight of small-pox at Havana, during the month of June.

FROM NEW YORK.

Cholera Cases—French Runaway Cashier Arrested—Riot Among Soldiers—Sudden Death of Paymaster Pangborn—Emancipation Celebration—Horse Passenger Railway Fines—Attitude of the European Potentates.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—Twenty-six cases and six deaths by cholera are reported to-day.

Sarnirande, the runaway Cashier of the Bank of Potteres, France, has been arrested in Canada.

It is reported that a serious riot occurred last evening among soldiers at Fort Schuyler, and that four or five men were shot. It is thought it originated from fear of the cholera.

Henry H. Pangborn, Paymaster in United States Navy, died suddenly at the Pensacola Navy Yard, on the morning of the 1st instant. He entered the Navy at the outbreak of the war, and has been in active service ever since that time, winning entire confidence of the Navy Department. He has been connected with the Press of Boston, New York and Washington. Paymaster Pangborn was twenty-seven years of age, and was married on Thursday of last week to Miss Ingraham, residing near Pensacola.

NEW YORK, August 2.—Yesterday being the first of August, the anniversary of emancipation in the British West Indies, the usual celebration was held by the colored residents in this city and vicinity. There were speeches, games, gymnastic and acrobatic performances and other festivities at Myrtle Avenue, Leffert's and Throop Avenue Parks, which were participated in by a large number of people.

According to a recent decision of the courts here, city railway companies will be obliged to carry passengers for five and one-eighth cents each, or eight tickets for forty-one cents.

The Times' London letter says of the attitude of the European potentates: "The actual question is, will Austria consent to resign all power and right in Germany, and leave Prussia the supreme controller of forty millions of Germans. Consenting to this, Austria may have peace with an empire of thirty-three million of people. If she will not consent, then Prussia will endeavor to excite a revolt in Hungary, and will do her worst to blot Austria from the map of Europe. The Emperor of France, a few weeks ago, insisted upon Austria being maintained as a German power. Now he appears to have renounced that part of his programme, and urges Austria to accept the terms of peace offered by Prussia and Italy, but there is something concealed. The Emperor is not ready to intervene, and he may have been converted by the needle gun to the Prussian policy.

"Russia, also, which a few weeks ago seemed to sympathize with Austria, has become friendly to Prussia, and last night, in the British House of Commons, there was a regular glorification of Count Bismark and the success of the Prussian army. The only friend of Austria in the House of Commons was Sir George Bowyer. Three months ago there was scarcely one to take the side of Prussia. The Imperial mediator is not ready to act. No doubt the needle gun was the first reason, and the attitude of Russia may have been the second. Russia seems to have taken offence at the offer of Venetia to France."

LATEST FROM WASHINGTON.

New Bounty Law—Form of Application—Steel Duties—Pardons by the President—Appointments—Chief of Engineers Relieved from Duty.

WASHINGTON, August 2.—In making application to the Second Auditor's office for the additional bounty provided for certain heirs of deceased soldiers, the form of application will be the same as heretofore used in applying for arrears of pay and bounty, with the exceptions that the number of the proviso settled should always be given, and it should be stated that application is made to recover the additional bounty provided by the 12th and 13th sections of the act of Congress, chapter 178, July 28, 1866.

It does not seem to be generally understood by Inspectors that the Secretary of the Treasury long ago decided that rails and other manufactures of iron by the Bessimer process, are liable to steel duties; the said process, changing, in fact, the iron into a metal so closely resembling steel in all particulars, as to defy the most experienced judges to detect the difference.

A special order from the War Department refers the recent act for the equalization of bounties to Major General Canby, U. S. Volunteers, Brevet Major General Barnes, Surgeon of the United States army, and Brevet Major General Buchanan, Colonel of the First United States infantry, in order that they may prepare and submit rules and regulations to carry out the provisions of the law.

Very few applications for pardon are now being made to the President. Five persons to-day received the executive clemency.

There is good reason for believing that Judge Cooley will be retained as Commissioner of Indian Affairs. The report that he was to be removed is not well founded.

John H. Peterson has been appointed Post Master at Woodstown, N. J., vice Mr. Moston, deceased.

The following Internal Revenue appointments were made to-day: Thos. Jones, Jr., Assessor 13th district, Ohio; John W. Stewart, of Davenport, Collector 2d district, Iowa; and H. R. Coggeshall, of Germantown, Assessor 5th district, Pennsylvania.

The War Department has issued an order relieving the Chief of Engineers from duty as Inspector of the Military Academy at West Point, and appointing Gen. E. Schriver Inspector General, to the charge of the same as Inspector of the Military Academy, until farther orders, assigning him by the direction of the President to duty according to his brevet of Major General.

The Philadelphia Age Talketh Muchly.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—The Philadelphia Age of this morning has a double leaded editorial calling attention to certain outgivings in the Radical press that the Philadelphia Union Convention is to be mobbed out of existence by returned soldiers, firemen, &c., as an offset to the mobbing of the bogus Negro Suffrage Convention at New Orleans. Should such an outrage be attempted, says the Age, in the event of the contingency referred to, the municipal arm would be unhesitatingly raised to protect the people in their rights, and that failing, the stronger power of the general government will be called upon, and should that be powerless, the last resort of the freemen will still be there.

The Trial of Jeff. Davis.

FORTRESS MONROE, Aug. 2.—Mr. O'Conor went north this evening on the steamer George Leary, having brought to an end his protracted interview with Davis. From the moment of his arrival here, three days ago, he has remained constantly inside the fortress, closely engaged with his client. From the length of the visit and the sudden manner in which it was made, it is believed that it was mainly attributable to the recent report of the Judiciary Committee to Congress, and the urgent necessity thereby created to decide upon a plan of defense, in view of the approaching trial.

Alabama State Convention.

SELMA, ALA., Aug. 2.—The State Convention here to-day was largely attended. Every district was represented. The proceedings were harmonious. The only resolution passed endorsed the President's policy, and accepts it. The following delegates for the State at large were chosen: Lewis E. Parsons, George S. Houston, A. B. Cooper, John Forsyth, R. B. Lindsey, James W. Taylor. Four delegates were appointed for each district.

Destructive Fire in Chicago.

CHICAGO, August 2.—The bag factory of Hart, Asten & Co., No. 183 South Water street, was destroyed by fire this morning. Loss $120,000. The adjoining store of Stearns & Forsyth, grocers, was damaged to the amount of $15,000. Both firms are fully insured.

FROM CANADA.

Editor Reprimanded—The Fenian Campaign—Napier Recalled for Incompetency—Another Fenian Invasion Expected—Defaulting French Cashier Apprehended—Public Reception to Gen. Barry.

OTTOWA, Aug. 2.—The case of La Joie, the editor who had the fracas with Dorian, came up before Parliament to-day. The prisoner was placed at the bar and allowed to make a statement, the principal point of which was, that Dorian gave the first blow. The case was then dismissed with a reprimand from the Speaker of the House to La Joie.

Great dissatisfaction still exists over the result of the campaign on the Niagara frontier. The return of General Napier to England is associated with the matter, and it is allowed that he has been recalled for incompetency.

Another Fenian invasion is looked for in the Fall, and already preparations are making to call out volunteers in order to meet the coming emergency. Colonel Peacock, of Ridgeway notoriety, is now the commander of the forces in Western Canada, because of the recall of Napier.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—A special to the Herald from Montreal says: Lamerande, the Cashier of the Bank of France at Poitiers, who escaped from New York by the alleged drugging of the United States Deputy Marshal, was apprehended yesterday at Saprairie, about ten miles from this city, on the opposite side of the St. Lawrence. He was tracked by a French detective. His examination before a magistrate has just been closed, and he has been remanded to jail. He is claimed from the State under the French extradition treaty, and the question is likly to arise whether the French authorities will claim him directly from the Canadian government.

Major General Barry is to have a public reception here to-morrow, when the entire garrison will parade on the Champs' de Marz, by order of Major General Sir James Lindsey.

The St. Charles Hotel—Grand Opening.

The traveling public will be rejoiced to learn that the St. Charles Hotel—once so famous as a hostelrie—is again open to their patronage. Some two years since, the present hote Mr. Harry Shirls delivered up the managerial reins and retired to the quiet seclusion of rural life. Tiring of the country, he again effected a lease of the premises and by princely improvements, to-day the St. Charles will rank, side by side, with any hotel in the city, while very few are equal to it, in accommodations, elegance and comfort.

In order to give our readers an idea of the immensity of the house, we have only to state that it contains one hundred and thirty rooms, ten halls and a grand saloon, fitted up with all the paraphernalia requisite to make it the saloon of the city. To the right of the saloon, which is on the first floor, is the main entrance on Wood street, which is through a high arched doorway, leading to a short flight of stairs, at the head of which is located the office. In front of the office is a broad hall, extending from the gentlemen's parlor on the left to the extreme end of the building. The floor of this hall is covered with mosaic tiles, of red and white, and on either side is situated an elegant suite of rooms. One of these is a ladies reception room, about forty feet long and twenty wide. The ceiling is of a light mauve color, handsomely frescoed. The walls are covered with white French finished paper, the pattern being a wreath of white flowers with a sprig of gilded laurel in the centre. The windows, eight in number, are of plate glass, and are draped in soft white folds of cloud-like lace of the finest texture, to which are attached heavy silken hangings of crimson and gold cord. On the floor is a carpet of the richest brussells, the predominating colors being green and red. The furniture is of oiled walnut, highly polished, and of an ebony hue, constructed with a strict regard to beauty and comfort. On either side of the apartment, and reaching almost from floor to ceiling, is two pier mirrors in frames of the most unique design and artistic finish. At night the room is lighted by two bronze candlebras, on each of which are six jets, surrounded with frosted globes, which will have the effect of subduing the light from a glaring blaze to a shade that will harmonize beautifully with the surrounding appointments. A little to the right of the gentlemen's parlor is a neat cozy little apartment fitted up as a reading room, where files of all the dailies and Eastern papers will be constantly kept. Next to this is a bath-room, with marble sinks and everything necessary to perform an ablution with expedition and ease. Each of the chambers are elegantly furnished, while some are sumptuously elegant, the floors being covered with brussels as well as the ten halls. The dining-room has capacity sufficient to accommodate one hundred and fifty guests, and is the very personification of neatness and order. To the right of the dining saloon is the carving room, which is stored with an infinite variety of fine cut glass and silver table ware consisting of silver tea sets, with castors and gougs attached, and chafing dish stands of the most improved pattern.

Beneath this room and on the ground floor, is the kitchen. Here everything is of mammouth proportions, and from what we observed during our brief visit, we are prepared to say that the culinary department of the St. Charles is equal to any contingency. While the cooks have a reputation for presenting viands in a style that would please the palate of the most fastidious epicure.

The following are the names of the different firms who have furnished the labor and material to enhance the beauty, and perfect the arrangements of the house:

The plumbing and gas fitting of the house was done by Messrs. Gallagher and Craig, of First street. The mirrors were furnished by Gillespie; the carpets by McCallum; the upholstery by Messrs. Edmondson and Co., and Messrs. Roberts and Renick. The latter gentleman made and put down the carpets. The gas fixtures are furnished by Ciskie & Co., of Philadelphia; the linen by Reno Gulion, of Philadelphia; the furniture by Fackiner and Irwin; the silverware by Meade and Smythe, of Philadelphia.

Hamill's Return—Programme of Reception.

To-day, at noon, James Hamill, the aquatic champion of the New World, will arrive in our city, from which he departed a few months since to compete in a foreign land for the championship of both hemispheres. His deportment during his absence has been of a character that won for him the friendship and esteem of all with whom he came in contact. Buoyant with hope and confidence, and imbued with a spirit to add lustre to the nation he represented, he entered into the contest. He was honorably defeated, and he had the manhood to acknowledge his defeat with a frankness that did him credit, and is worthy of imitation by our transatlantic friends. That he was defeated, we are assured, was no fault of his, and now that he is coming back to us, we hope the result of the international match will not detract in any way from the warmth of the reception his friends have tendered him. The Committee appointed to make arrangements for his reception request all persons desirous of participating in the reception to assemble at the Duquesne Engine House an hour previous to the arrival of the train. The procession will form there and proceed to the Union Depot in the following order:

Brass Band.
The Turner's Society.
The Fire Department.
Carriage containing the Champion and his backers, John Paisley, Alexander Murray and Benj. Coursin.
Carriage containing John Hamill, Henry P. Kane, Hugh Sallie and John McElroy.
Carriage containing James Laughlin, James Scott, Henry Tatnall and M. McSteen.
Followed by two carriages containing Robert Little, Stephen Carnes and other Tynesiders, now residents of Pittsburgh.
Then will follow a number of carriages containing friends of the Champion.
After which will come any order or society who may be pleased to attend, and citizens on foot.

The procession will form on Liberty street, and will march down Liberty to Wayne, along Wayne to Penn, down Penn to Hand, along Hand to Liberty, up Liberty to Wood, along Wood to Sixth, up Sixth to Smithfield, along Smithfield to Fifth, down Fifth to Market, along Market to Third, up Third to Smithfield, and to the Duquesne Engine House.

A grand testimonial benefit will be given to the champion, at the Academy of Music, in the evening, at seven o'clock. The bill of entertainment comprises the beautiful melo drama of the "Orphan of Geneva," in which W. C. Gallagher will assume the leading role, and the play of Charles II., S. W. Coswell as the Merry Monarch. The list of volunteers for the occasion embrace the very cream of the theatrical profession in this city, and we can assure our readers that the affair shall be au fait in every particular.

The Hatfield Homicide—Brahe Admitted to Bail.

Henry Brahe, charged with involuntary homicide in the shooting and killing of Henry Helliger, near the village of Hatfield, on Saturday evening last, was brought before Judge Stowe, yesterday, on an application for a writ of habeas corpus filed by his attorney, W. C. Moreland, Esq.

Several witnesses were examined, the two girls residing at Mr. Holmes' being among the number. From the evidence adduced, it was clearly shown that the deceased and the prisoner had been on the most intimate and friendly terms, and that their visits to the residence of Mr. Holmes, for the purpose of seeing the young women referred to, had been quite frequent and well known to the family. Judge Stowe remarked that if the same evidence was produced on the trial, he would feel justified in charging the jury to find a verdict of acquittal. His Honor then directed that Brahe should be released upon entering bail in the sum of one thousand dollars.

Partial Hearing.—John Lucas, Julian Blackson and William Sanders were before Alderman Donaldson, yesterday, to answer a charge of assault and battery, with intent to kill, preferred against them by two men named John Ruffian and William Lucker. The parties are all colored, and the suit grew out of a disturbance that took place at Glenwood Grove, on Wednesday, the first of August, a full report of which appeared in our issue of yesterday. After several witnesses had been examined, the hearing was postponed until Monday, at two o'clock, the injured parties, Ruffian and Tucker, being too unwell to appear. The accused were admitted to bail in $1,000 each.

The Dispatch Man Grows Witty.

Our esteemed neighbor, the Dispatch, has now in employ a very witty chap upon its reportorial staff. He is witty, but not energetic. Fearing to leave his cosy chair in the comfortable sanctum, he selects his items of city intelligence from country exchanges, and fills up his scant columns with the details of pick-pockets' operations upon his own pockets, mudlark threats to do him personal violence, and occasionally dishes up to his readers the private conversation of police officers. He is sore when other reporters "beat him" in items of importance, and to blind his readers would have them believe that no such things can transpire without his hearing of them. Yesterday, the fear of the "Third ward rats" appears to have been removed from his heart and he grew quite witty at our expense, and branched out in a silly dissertation upon a truly horrible occurrence narrated by us several days ago. It was an attempt to throw doubt upon the item originally appearing in this journal, concerning the death of a bright babe from the bite of a rat. While he aimed to be "smart" it was clearly apparent that he was smarting under the chagrin of suffering, in reporters' vocabulary, "so bad a beat." For the information of our readers we again assert that the item referred to was true in every essential particular, and that the occurrence was even more horrible than our reporter narrated it! We will say further, that in the same house, a few days after the babes' death, a lad thirteen years of age, while sleeping, was attacked by a rat, and had his finger bitten through near the first joint. Now, Mr. Dispatch man, what can you make out of our sensation?

In the same issue in which the Dispatch takes us to task, it publishes a sensational story, given for fact, of the case of a young lady tickled to death by her mother. Is this more probable than that a tender infant should be killed by rats? Again, while the reporter accuses us of manufacturing sensation items, we would direct attention to the fact that he publishes in the same issue no less than four important locals, word for word, as they appeared the day previous in our journal. We would not complain having the Dispatch as our third edition, if they wouldn't insinuate that we are in the sensation business.

National Gift Concert.

The Grand National Gift Concert announced to have taken place yesterday evening at Grover's Theatre, in Washington, D. C., has been postponed until Thursday, the 11th day of October. The reason assigned for the postponement is that a sufficient number of tickets have not as yet been disposed of to warrant the distribution of the large premiums offered. The profits accruing from this liberal enterprise, in which premiums to the amount of a quarter million of dollars are offered, will be devoted to one of the most noble charities of the day—the erection of a Soldiers' Orphan Home. Some of the most reliable of merchants and citizens of the country attach their names to the prospectuses, vouching for the honesty and patriotism of the scheme. Allegheny county, usually so patriotic and loyal, is now called upon to aid in so worthy an undertaking by her citizens purchasing tickets, which may draw large fortunes for the holders. There can be no doubt but this will prove one of the most honorable gift schemes ever planned in this country, and the prizes will be drawn and paid to lucky subscribers. John W. Pittock, news-dealer, opposite the post office, is the agent for the Association in this city, and tickets may be procured from him.

Death of an Esteemed Citizen.

Mr. Aaron Myers, of the firm of Rosenbaugh & Co., oil merchants, of this city, was drowned in the Allegheny river at Oil City, on Tuesday evening. Mr. Myers was engaged in examining some boats belonging to the firm which were moored along the bank of the river, when, by some means, he lost his footing and fell into the river. Assistance was close at hand, but he was drawn under the boat and drowned. The body was recovered yesterday morning, and brought to this city this morning for interment. Mr. Myers was well known in this community, and leaves a wife and a large circle of friends to mourn his death.

Alleged Adultery.—There is an individual named J. W. Clarke, who appears to be quite busy in bringing to justice the guilty paramours of his wife. In fact the informations made against respectable citizens by this man, charging them with adultery, has started the suspicion that he and his wife are endeavoring to play an extensive blackmailing game. Yesterday the fellow visited the office of Alderman Johns and preferred a charge of adultery against one of our most esteemed citizens. A time for a hearing was appointed but Clarke and his wife failed to put in an appearance. Of course the defendant was discharged. Magistrates should look out for this fellow and be very careful how they receive his sworn informations.

Two Charges.—Two Irishmen named John Ryley and Terrance M'Manus, got into a difficulty on Wednesday evening in a beer saloon, at the corner of Factory and Penn streets which terminated in Terrance knocking John down and beating him in a cruel manner. Terrance was arrested and brought before Alderman Taylor, who made him give bail for a hearing to-day.

William Mendell made a similar information against M'Manus, on which he was also required to give $300 additional bail for his appearance at court.

Ferocious Dog.—David Pugh is a man of timid disposition and has a holy horror of every type of the canine species. Yesterday he was considerably frightened by a huge mastiff, the property of Edward Pool, and forthwith appeared before Alderman Johns, of the Seventh ward, and charged Pool with keeping and maintaining, contrary to an act of Assembly made and provided, &c., a ferocious dog. Pool was arrested, but was released on giving bail for a hearing on Saturday.

The season for canning fruit having arrived, our friend P. C. Duffey, No. 146 Grant street, is ready to supply the public with a cheap and superior article of self-sealing can, which he had manufactured expressly for this market. Mr. D. is a practical tinner of great experience, and is able to recommend this article to the housekeepers of this county. As the demand for these cans is very great, we would advise our friends to call at Duffey's establishment immediately.

Waived a Hearing.—Abraham Griffith, the man charged with attempting to rape a little girl named Mary Rogan, on Boyd's Hill on Monday, waived a hearing yesterday and was committed to jail. He will be tried at the next term of the Criminal Court. The evidence against him is of the most positive character, and the only thing we have to regret is that the punishment for such an offense is too light to meet the enormity of his offence.

Large Price.—Through an oversight we failed to record the sale at auction of Wampum Furnace as advertised some time in this paper. Samuel Kimberly, Esq., a representative of the Eagle Furnace of Sharon, was the purchaser at $42,500. This large price was obtained after T. A. McClelland's best efforts at auctioneering.

Surety of the Peace.—William Hinsworth appeared before Alderman Strain, yesterday, and made oath against John McCarthy, Mrs. McCarthy and Mrs. Solad, all denizens of Fort Limerick, in the borough of Temperanceville, for surety of the peace. Warrants were issued for the arrest of the parties named.

Fire.—The alarm of fire last night was occasioned by the burning of an unoccupied frame house above Brownstown. It was totally destroyed, and belonged to J. H. Page. The loss will approximate $1,000; no insurance. The fire is supposed to be the work of an incendiary.

For Court.—Joseph Fridenright, accused by Mrs. Blacke with attempt to commit a rape on a domestic of hers named Jennie White, had a hearing before Alderman Donaldson. Joseph gave bail for his appearance at court.

Butler vs. Sinclair.—An ebony specimen of humanity, named Eliza Ann Butler, charged a woman of the same color, named Sarah Sinclair, with surety of the peace, before Alderman Johns, yesterday. A warrant was issued.

Sued Her.—Joseph A. Holmes sued Mrs. Mary A. Grinnell before Alderman Morrow yesterday, for assault and battery. Mary gave bail for trial. Both parties reside in Pitt township.

Invited.—We understand that Jimmy Hamill has been invited and will attend a pic-nic at Glenwood Grove, to-day, for the benefit of a wounded soldier named R. W. Ramsey.

On the Rampage.—We learned through a reliable channel yesterday, that a number of Mayor Morrison's police force was on the rampage on Wednesday afternoon.

—A house in Cleveland, from which the family had moved on a visit, and which was occupied only at night by a gentleman, was "cleaned out" by robbers a day or two since, who took their booty in broad daylight, and came the second day for what they had at first been unable to carry. The affair was so open and impudent that, though many persons saw the operation, no one thought of interfering.

—A Utah letter speaks of one of Brigham Young's sons as follows: "Joseph, or 'Joe' Young, as he is familiarly known in Utah, is a fast young man. He has been on a 'mission,' traveled in Europe, smokes, chews, gets drunk, swears, preaches the gospel, has three wives whom he whips and otherwise shamefully abuses, and is a good Mormon, in full fellowship with the Church."

—At a Democratic meeting lately held at Shelbyville, one of the "unwashed" gave an enthusiastic cheer for Breckinridge, which was responded to by the crowd with much enthusiasm. Another yelled out, "Lincoln is dead and in h—l, G—d d—n him," and this also was rapturously applauded. These are reconstructed rebels.

—Although there have been some four or five challenges passed and one citizen killed in a duel, at Memphis, the Grand Jury reported that they were unable to find evidence that any person had participated in this crime.

THE NEW
Spring and Summer Medicine.
FLUID EXTRACT
SARSAPARILLA,
COMBINED WITH
Iodide of Lime,
PREPARED FOR
G. W. PETTES, BOSTON,
BY
James. R. Nichols & Co.,
MANUFACTURING CHEMISTS,
MANUFACTURERS OF THE
ELIXIR PERUVIAN BARK
WITH
Protoxide of Iron,
Which has become so favorably known as a
Tonic and Restorative,
By Physicians and Invalids in all parts of the country.

The new preparation, "SARSAPARILLA IN A COMBINATION WITH IODIDE OF LIME, presents one of the most prompt alterative agents in a form capable of exerting full action upon the system, and this in minute and pleasant doses. It is conceded that the alterative, resolvent, or tonic effects of Iodine, are exerted most decidedly when associated with other alteratives, in combination; and the Sarsaparilla seems to fulfil perfectly all the favorable requisitions.

The first effect usually observed when "SARSAPARILLA WITH IODIDE OF LIME" is taken, is an increase of appetite, showing that it has tonic properties of a marked character. Its alterative effects are manifest in its ready combination with the blood and tissues. Hale, scrofulous women and children improve rapidly under its use, and the vital functions assume a healthy condition.

It is admirably adapted to a large number of chronic or acute affections peculiar to children. It is suited to them, both by the mildness and efficiency of Medicinal effect and the pleasant, attractive form of the remedy. It may be given for a long period where constitutional influences are desired, and no repugnance, or disinclination to the syrup, encountered. In White-Swellings, Hip-joint Disease, and Distortions of the Spine, it should be given persistently, in moderate doses, until relief is obtained.

The accumulation of morbid matters in the system seems to become manifest and very troublesome. Lassitude, Headache, Boils, Costiveness, Loss of Appetite, Pains in the Joints, Indigestion, etc., are very common. Nothing ever devised is better adapted to exterminate or drive off these affections than this new combination of SARSAPARILLA WITH IODIDE OF LIME.

No preparation like it, or which approximates to it as an

has ever before been placed within the reach of invalids. Indeed, it is an entirely NEW and SCIENTIFIC combination, in no respect resembling anything hitherto employed.

The opinion of medical men concerning it, the description of its chemical character, therapeutic value, manner of use, etc., are given in a circular, which can be had at the store of any and all first-class Druggists.

THE POLITICAL SITUATION.

When the armies of the Confederacy were forced to succumb, the Southern people were willing to accept any conditions the General Government, upon a fair survey, deemed necessary for the speedy and permanent tranquilization of the country. Their resources for resistance being exhausted, they were ready to accept peace on the best terms they could procure. This frame of mind did not indicate that their convictions as to the right or wrong of the quarrel were essentially modified, or had not become stronger and more embittered towards the Government than they were at the beginning of the contest. Few things are more flatly contradicted by uniform experience than the supposition that defeat in battle, no matter how conclusive and overwhelming, alters the convictions of those who are driven to the wall. The Poles, Hungarians and Irish have been beaten, time and again; but the impulse of resistance is as strong to-day in those nationalities as at any former period, and as ready to flame out in fierce opposition upon slight appearances indicative of success.

In such a conjuncture of affairs the opposite extremes of inflexible rigor or immoderate clemency attract the larger proportions of loyal men. The predominant thought is either to crush by unsparing severities or to captivate by boundless lenity. Under the rigorous policy a pervasive feeling of sullen, dogged resistance and revenge is superinduced—under the policy of swift and general oblivion for all offences, hopes are speedily engendered of predominence and power in conformity to the laws, or of ultimate independence in contravention of them. Each of these states of mind is hostile to the repose and unity of the people.

A middle policy—a policy that steers midway between these two extremes—is the only one that offers security to the nation by promising to bind the discordant elements together in such relations as to produce new affinities. Under this policy only the leaders of the rebellion would be placed under prescription, and few of them beyond participation in public affairs. It is mischievous to deny to the masses of the southern people the right of self-government, no matter whether those masses are black or white. In this respect there is no difference between those extreme radicals who would shut four millions of white rebels from the polls, and those extreme conservatives who would shut out four millions of loyal black. In both cases it holds true that government without the consent of the governed is tyranny. The result on the one hand or the other, must be heart-burnings, jealousies, hatreds, revenges.

When proscriptions are laid only on a few, and on them for the manifest reason of special criminality, obvious to all men, causes of complaint are removed. By quick degrees new leaders spring up, animated by fresh ambitions. These soon constitute a distinct class, absorb the control into their own possession, and are not willing to part with it either in the interest of their predecessors or rivals. These new leaders naturally find affiliations in other parts of the country. Gradually another and better set of traditions is formed, and then the national unity is restored, in fact as well as in name.

The President is so constituted by nature as to be incapable of maintaining a medium course. He is always necessarily in excess. Hence he is a good leader of a faction, but a bad leader for a whole people. Upon his accession to the Presidency, in the violent death of Mr. LINCOLN, he displayed the same fierce and implacable energy that had enabled him to trample down his enemies and the enemies of the Union in Tennessee. His breath was a flame of fire. It threatened to consume every man who had participated in the rebellion. His voice rang out over the whole land in a wierd tone, resembling that in which the early caliphs condemned captured cities and prisoners to wholesale slaughter. When he cooled, he subsided to the other extreme. He grew enamored of rebels and Copperheads—took them into his confidence—entered into their schemes—pledged them his protection and co-operation—conceived the idea that they were truer to the Constitution than the men who stood by his side all through the great struggle, and at last formed the plan of making over the Government into their custody and control, transfusing it with their sentiments, and subordinating it to their principles. It is easy to see that if such a regime should actually be established loyalty would become odious—a badge of disgrace—that all who were conspicuous for it would be made "to take back seats"—would be regarded and denounced as traitors. This was clearly foreshadowed in the President's 22d of February speech, in which he denounced SUMNER, STEVENS, WADE, and others of like character, as disunionists and traitors, because they were not prepared for the restoration of the most notorious rebels to high places of authority in the nation.

As we judge, Congress has hit upon a medium policy, equally removed from the imputation of severity or weakness. If left to our own thought, we should have inclined to some more effectual provision for the rights of colored loyalists, but it is possible the proposed arrangement will work better than a more summary process. This congressional plan does not lay disabilities on the masses of the Southern people. It would restore them at once to an equal participation in the government, and under them equally eligible to the highest honors. It forces no ameliorations of their local laws regulating suffrage, but only strong inducements to changes which the march of events is sure to inaugurate by virtue of moral and intellectual forces operating within the bosom of their own society.

It remains for the people, at the elections to be held this fall, to decide which of these two systems shall prevail. The appeal is not now to the cartridge box but to the ballot box. The loyal people are the lawful possessors of the government, and may do with it as they will. Whatever their decision may be, we shall cheerfully abide it, but we hope and believe it will be on the side of prudence and wisdom, laying the foundations of reconstruction on a basis that shall deepen the liberties of all the people, eliminate existing elements of discord and bind together in fraternal bonds never again to be broken.

THE ACCOUNTS of the New Orleans massacre have been read by all loyal people, in all parts of the country, with a thrill of intense indignation. We have delayed expressing our judgment upon those startling events, until such time as all the essential facts should be elicited, and opportunity should be afforded for a dispassionate judgment.

It is apparent that the massacre was a revival and outbreak of the old pro-slavery and rebel fanaticism and intolerance. It may be regarded, in fact, as a misguided [illegible] to re-open the war. When the war closed the Southern people, and particularly that portion of them residing in New Orleans, felt constrained to repress their hatred of Northern men, and of the new order of things introduced, in consequence of the failure of the rebellion. Apparently they acquiesced in what seemed to them to be inevitable. But, gradually, for six or eight months past, a change has come over them. The conviction has been growing stronger and stronger on their minds that the President was taking sides with them, and that they could rely on the national government to support them in pretensions which they would have felt it absurd to make immediately following the capitulation of their armies. To such consistency has this conviction proceeded it has been manifest, for some weeks past, that Northern men were nearly as insecure in their persons and properties as before the war, and that it would require only a gleam of hope to rekindle the former strife and re-open the issue of arms.

Those who have gone carefully over the various accounts of what transpired at New Orleans and Washington, and have weighed all the facts carefully, have come to the conclusion that the conduct of President Johnson is deserving of the severest animadversion. It is probable he knew popular violence would be resorted to in order to prevent the re-assembling of the Constitutional Convention, and that he purposely refrained from taking any measures for effectual interposition in case the powers of the local magistrates should be ineffectual, or their intimations should lead them to indifference or to side with the mob. At all events, it is clear that when urged to preserve order he not only refused, but gave intimations that the violence exercised towards the Convention was congenial to his feelings, and would not be thwarted by any use of military power.

The loyal masses now know what issue is presented, and what dangers they are called upon to confront. The President, who holds his office by their suffrages, has become the leader of the rebels, and is tending the whole weight of his authority, not only to exempt them from disabilities, but to enable them as far as practicable to recover political ascendancy and control in the nation.

GENERAL NEWS.

—The State Teachers' Association is at present in session in Gettysburg.

—There will be cars run at all hours of night, hereafter, upon one of the street passenger railways of Cincinnati.

—Hon. Caleb Cushing is expected to deliver an address at the approaching Masonic celebration in Newburyport, Mass.

—Professor Bond proposes to make hideous the heretofore sublime Kanterskill Falls, by walking over them on a tight-rope.

—A convention of underwriters, representing Ohio and all the Western States, is to meet at Freeport, Illinois, during the present month.

—Work on the Jamestown and Ashtabula Railroad has been suspended for one year. The virtual meaning of the suspension, we presume, is an abandonment of the project.

—During one of the late hot days a buggy was set on fire in Baldwinsville, N. Y., by a bottle which was lying in the bottom of it, and which acted like a burning glass.

—The passion for gambling is becoming very general throughout the north, and is conducted every where. Much money is thus lost and won every day, even on the railroads.

—Charles Shannon has been nearly killed in Chicago by Thomas Murray, both iron-workers, for casting reflections on the legitimacy of the latter's children. Mustn't cast reflections.

—Rev. John Henry Hopkins, Jr., son of the Bishop of Vermont and editor of the Church Journal, read a poem before his mates of the class of '39, at Burlington commencement.

—At the meeting of the Alumni of Yale College, at the late commencement, Rev. John Pierpont, who graduated sixty-two years ago, and is now over eighty years of age, was among the speakers.

—Henry M. Field, a brother of Cyrus W. Field, has written, and Scribner will very soon publish, a full and graphic account of the telegraphic cable enterprise, made up from his brother's diaries and papers.

—Mrs. Jacob Thompson is in Washington, urging the President to pardon her husband on the ground that he is an earnest supporter of the Presidential policy. It is reported that she will probably be successful.

—The Richmond Enquirer calls attention to the fact that negroes are forming themselves into military companies in Richmond, and drilling and marching by night. The impression is given out that some collision may occur.

—A Dr. Reed, of Millersburg, Ohio, disappeared from that place a few days ago, carrying with him a little girl, daughter of a neighbor. The parents are telegraphing all over the country for information of the missing parties.

—Henry W. Veazey, of the firm of Huyck & Veazey, livery stable keepers at Norfolk, Va., died suddenly on Monday, shortly after taking a dose of medicine. It is supposed the medicine contained, through mistake, some poisonous substance.

—Prince Alfred, it is said, declined being made Duke of York, as has hitherto been the practice with the second son of the monarch, for fear that the creditors of the late Duke should send in the still unpaid bills to him as successor to the title.

—The leading guests at one of the Saratoga hotels gave a tableaux performance on Thursday evening for the benefit of the Portland sufferers. The tickets brought five hundred dollars. A large number of other seats were sold at from five to fifty dollars.

—In Saratoga there is nothing different from fashionable hotel life everywhere, excepting the drinking of the water. People lounge and dress and flirt and eat in much the same way, only they dance evenings instead of going to the theatre or opera, and they go to the lake instead of going hopping.

—The Tallahassee Floridian advises concert of action for the purpose of testing in the United States Courts the legitimacy of the Federal taxes levied during the war, and now being collected from the Southern States. It denies the rightfulness of such collections.

—The common impression that August is a warmer month than July, is effectually disposed of. It has happened a few times that the more regular heat of that month has made the average greater, but in nearly all cases the temperature is from 1 to 6 deg. lower in August. In many years the month of June is nearly as warm as August.

Hotel Extortion.

We have had half a dozen letters cordially endorsing a brief editorial on Hotel Impositions, printed in last week's Bulletin, and, judging from all we hear from noted watering places, beach and mountain houses, and, in fact, all the celebrated resorts of summer tourists, the landlords will not have anything like an average amount of visitors this season. This is ascribed in some degree to the number of tourists absent in Europe. Allow that this be true, travel in Europe now, exchange and gold premium added, is cheaper than the rates charged at hotels at many of our fashionable resorts. Following the example of their more aristocratic brethern, some of the ill-kept, dirty hotels in the cities along the great lines of railroads running out from New York, have become so exorbitant in their prices for ill-cooked greasy meals, that it is becoming the general practice for tourists to carry a supply of provisions sufficient for a day or two in lunch baskets or haversacks, by which means three or four dollars a head is saved and a far better and more digestible meal obtained.

One correspondent states that the large houses in New York and Philadelphia, not content with ten dollars a day charged for a gentleman and wife, put on an extra charge of two or three dollars a day for such rooms as have a little bath closet attached. Complaints of the great creatures with large watch chains and solitaire diamond pins, who condescend to stand behind the office counters to receive [illegible] and greenbacks from humble travellers, are numerous.

All we can say to those who must travel is, to demand what they pay for at fashionable hotels, and insist upon having it without extra bribery. Always call for a bill of items, examine closely, and pay not one cent over charge. The clerk at the office is to serve the guests, and not the guests him. And a word to landlords. Personal attention to business and the wants of guests pays handsomely,—the public are quick to recognize it.

If you undertake to keep a hotel, keep it—it won't run well by itself any more than a newspaper or a railroad train.—Philadelphia Bulletin.

Additional Local Matters on First Page.

Ye Local Editor—What he is Presumed To Be, and What He Is.

Few persons have any idea of a newspaper. They imagine a local editor a hydra-headed being, at whom they are at liberty to hurl all their bad English and crude ideas, and flood him with voluminous communications on all imaginary subjects. To him are directed communications the which should properly reach the Board of Health, as though he alone constituted the smelling committee of the community. The local is supposed to take a deep interest in a dog fight up town or a wool pulling or beer brawl in other quarters, and if not present at both, even happen they at the same moment, he lacks enterprise. He is required to test beer and speak knowingly of its qualities, and at the same time strongly advocate the cause of temperance. He is thought to be vicious, resentful, uncharitable and quarrelsome; to be kind-hearted, forgiving, compassionate and friendly. He is presumed to see others wrongs as they see them, resent them as they resent, He should shed a tear of sorrow over every citizen who dies, and rejoice in the convalescense of everybody. He must bewail the dead, wish those who go astray and get married much happiness, and indict verses of poesy for their benefit, though he himself be an inveterate old bachelor. He must visit places of amusement free of cost, shut his eyes to defects, and proclaim every imitator a rival of Forest or Adams. In music he is presumed to be wonderful, in art a perfect commisseur, and in science deep and skilled. He can see a Jennie Lind or Piccolomini in Miss Smith or Brown, who own voices akin to the creach of illy lubricated machinery, the hearing of which jars his nerves and makes him uncomfortable. In daubs of paint he sees the hand of genius. He attributes high mechanical ability to the inventor of the wooden drummer boy or the patentee of a tin horn. He is a capital judge of fruits and berries, and can correctly speak of the superior merits of one vegetable over another. He must find fault with children for romping, girls for extravagance, women for fashions, men for spreeing, preachers for preaching and sinners for sinning. He is expected to pass by unnoticed the little beggar girl who accosts him upon the streets with a piteous appeal for bread, but must exalt and commend some mission in the land of Hottentots, advising the charitable to there send their loose change. In short the local editor, as pictured by the unknowing public, is a singular being. Now for the reality. He is an ordinary mortal, having a human heart in his breast, a soul within his body, and few dimes in his wallet. He has unluckily chosen the most slavish profession in the world by which to earn a livelihood. He does not gloat over his columns of murders, miseries, rapes, wrongs and wranglings, as some appear to think, but has a secret horror and loathing for crime and its perpetrators. Then pity the Local, spare him from your communications and complaints, believe his work is not for love but to please every class of the community, and, by no means forgetting, to earn a scanty pittance to keep soul and body together.

A few weeks since, we published in our columns, the report of a child having been killed by the bite of a rat, and that it was subsequently almost devoured by them. Our skeptical neighbor, the Dispatch, waited for two weeks to ascertain the truth of the occurrence before giving it to their readers, but after patient search and diligent inquiry, they came to the conclusion at last, that the whole affair was a hoax, and in quite a lengthy article in yesterday's issue, they gave their readers the benefit of this doubt. Knowing the source from whence we had obtained our information to be reliable, we repaired thither, and learned, that not only were we correct in the first statement, but that we had reported but half of the horrible circumstances. We subjoin the particulars of the whole affair, and hope our enterprising cotemporary will not hesitate on the score of veracity to give them to their readers before they are a fortnight old. About nine o'clock, the parents of the infant referred to in our former article, were sitting in the kitchen of their home, when they heard screams issuing from a chamber adjoining, in which lay sleeping their children—little girls—the youngest being three months and the other three years old. The parents ran immediately to the assistance of the children, but just as they crossed the threshold of the chamber, they saw two great black rats jump from the bed in which the children slept, and make a hasty exit through an open door in the rear. On going to the bed, it was discovered that both children had been severely bitten in the face and arms by the rats, and that the youngest was already dead. The other was seized with convulsions, in one of which she expired some twelve hours after being bitten, having suffered the most torturing agony in the meantime. In the interval between death and burial, the youngest child was laid on a settle, in the room in which it had been bitten and in the absence of its parents and friends from the apartment, a swarm of rats entered and devoured the entire face—the nose, cheeks and lips having been eaten to the bone, which laid bare in several places. In addition to the above case, an uncle of the children—a lad of about thirteen years—was severely bitten in the hand by a rat while asleep in the same dwelling a few nights subsequent to the occurrence narrated above.

Another Version.

In Wednesday's issue we said: "Owen Dillim was before Alderman Humbert yesterday, charged with surety of the peace, on oath of William Hannison. The affair was settled by Hannison paying the costs and withdrawing the charge." This was wrong. Mr. Hannison did not pay the costs, but Dillim was required to give bail to answer the charge at Court. The latter had previously endeavored to make a similar charge against Hannison before Alderman Strain, but that magistrate refused to entertain it. Mr. Hannison is a peaceable, quiet gentleman, and this correction is due him.

A Model Orthographist.—While on a visit to Oakland yesterday we were struck with a strange style of orthography, displayed on a written schedule of the Pittsburgh, Oakland & East Liberty Passenger Railway, hung up in the office of the Company at Oakland. In the first place the card stated that a car would "leaf" every ten "minets" for "Est Liberty" while the return car would arrive at "Oekland" on time, When that would be, was not stated. The orthographist gave further evidence of his abilities to spell correctly by writing in ugly black letters, on a car that had just arrived from the city, "Trogh car for Est Liberty." Who can beat this?

Sent to Jail.—John McAleese came to the Mayor's office, yesterday, in company with a police officer, on a charge of having refused to keep his wife Julia in food and raiment, as in their marriage contract. John expostulated, and urged in defence that it was no one's business whether he contributed to the support of his wife or not, and that the law had no jurisdiction. His Honor thought differently, however, and John was committed to jail in default of $300 bail.

Promotion.—Lt. Com. O. C. Badger, successor to Commander E. M. Yard, as Inspector of Ordnance at the Fort Pitt Foundry, was promoted just before the adjournment of Congress to the position of Commander in the United States navy. Commander Badger was severely wounded during the late war while acting as Fleet Captain before Charleston, from which he has not yet recovered. The promotion was most merited.

Accident to an Old Soldier.—On Monday morning Mr. Charles Williams, of South Union township, Fayette county, a soldier of 1812, in descending from his bed-room made a misstep and fell down a stairway, alighting upon his head, which produced a severe contusion on the head, fractured some of his ribs and otherwise injured him.

Assault and Battery.—Margaret McAllen was before Alderman Lynch, yesterday, charged with assault and battery, on oath of Dennis Leonard. At the hearing it was discovered that Margaret was more sinned against than sinning, and she was accordingly discharged, Leonard being ordered to pay the costs.

Had a Hearing.—William Mentzer, whose arrest for the larceny of a silver watch and $40 in money from John Heyle we noticed in yesterday's issue, had a hearing before the Mayor yesterday, which resulted in Mentzer being committed to jail to await trial at the next term of the Quarter Sessions.

Not a Tavern Keeper.—Mr. Ballet, who was recently pardoned out of jail for selling liquor without a license, requests us to say that he does not keep a tavern, but that the information upon which he was convicted was the result of a conspiracy.

Green Truck.—The markets are well supplied with all descriptions of green garden truck. It is not necessary to advise prudent persons to be careful that they do not carry with their marketing into their household the seeds of cholera.

Hamill Coming.—A. J. Freyvogel, Esq., received a telegram last night from Jimmy Hamill, in Philadelphia, stating that he would arrive here this day at one o'clock. His friends should turn out en masse to welcome the little hero.

Bathing in Daylight.—A party of large sized boys were bathing yesterday afternoon in the Monongahela river, in full sight of the upper bridge. The police should promptly arrest these shameless young rascals.

The Hay Crop.—From all parts of the county we hear the most favorable reports of the great yield of hay. The warm weather and frequent rains have brought the grass to great perfection.

Grave Yard Banquet.—The good colored people of Uniontown gave a dinner on the 1st, for the purpose of raising funds to establish a grave yard.

Water Melons.—Water mellons and peaches are plenty in the markets.

Pleasant.—Yesterday was a very pleasant, cool day.

Special Caution.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has become so popular that various parties have put out articles calling them Mrs. Winslow's. Please take notice that the Mrs. Winslow of the Soothing Syrup is not connected with any other article. jy11:d&w

EARLY TELEGRAMS.

FROM WASHINGTON.

Resignation of Gen. T. T. Eckert—Kidnapping of Negroes—Statement Denied—Delinquent Southern Postmasters—Order Issued by the Secretary of War—Indian Scouts to be Organized—Revenue Receipts, &c.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—The morning papers have the following special dispatches from Washington: General T. T. Eckert to-day tendered his resignation as Assistant Secretary of War, to take effect at once, that he may accept the position of General Superintendent of the Eastern Division of the American Western Union and United States Telegraph, as now consolidated under the title of the Western Union and American Union Line, and extending from Norfolk and Washington northward and eastward through the New England States, and connecting with the Canada line and the Atlantic Cable. General Eckert is a practical electrician, and during the war had charge of the United States Military Telegraph Lines centering at Washington. His headquarters will hereafter be at New York city.

The Navy Department denies the statement published in the New York Tribune and the Washington Chronicle, relative to the kidnapping of negroes on the coast of Florida.

The Auditor of the Postoffice Department is still engaged in forcing delinquent postmasters of the Southern States to settle their accounts with the Government. There yet remains to be collected about $150,000.

The following important order was to-day issued by the Secretary of War: One thousand Indian scouts will be organized, mounted and equipped immediately, to serve with the following commands, viz: Lieut. Gen. W. T. Sherman, 600; Gens. Halleck and Sheridan, 200 each. It is understood that these scouts will be used in the command of Gens. Sherman and Sheridan to protect officers in charge of the Freedmen's Bureau and government officials in Southern States.

A telegram from General Sheridan has been received here, recommending the continuance of martial law in New Orleans until after the investigations of the riots shall be concluded.

The Sixth Auditor is pressing claims against delinquent postmasters of the South. The delinquency was at first three hundred thousand dollars, one-half of which has been collected.

The National Executive Committee announce that they will be in session at the Continental Hotel, Philadelphia, from the 10th of August until the day of the Convention, and request delegates to forward to them their names and address.

Secretary McCulloch has instructed collectors of ports to commence the levy of new duties on and after August tenth, the new rates not to apply to goods now in bond.

The Internal Revenue receipts yesterday amounted to over two million dollars, and during the month of July, $27,079,103 32.

H. R. Coggswell, of Philadelphia, has been appointed Assessor of the Fifth District, Pennsylvania, vice E. T. Chase.

FOREIGN AFFAIRS.

By Foreign Mails—England will not Object to Bismarck's Plan—British Government and Reform Meetings—Withdrawal of the French from Mexico.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—European mails just arrived furnish the following facts:

Earl Derby and Lord Stanley, in both houses of the English Parliament, set forth the neutral and observant policy of England, inclining evidently towards the feeling that she will not object to German reconstruction in the shape of a great empire on Bismarck's plan.

The Prussian Cabinet, flushed with its prowess, attributes the anxiety of Napoleon and the Czar of Russia for peace to causes other than disinterested friendship for either the King or the people.

It is said that if Italy obtains Venetia and Rome, England will cede Malta.

The British government does not object to Reform meetings on principle, but to the fact of Hyde Park being made the scene of agitation. Mr. Beadles, who appears to be a Fergus O'Connor or O'Connor in embryo, objects very decisively to the authority of the police commissioners in the matter.

Three French war frigates have been ordered at Cherbourg to land their guns and sail for Mexico, to commence the retirement of the French army.

FROM MEXICO.

NEW YORK, Aug. 2.—The Herald's Matamoras correspondent, of July 20th, says: Caravajal's administration of affairs there is winning friends to the Liberal cause.

A forced loan had been ordered by Caravajal in Matamoras.

A letter from Maxamilian's Chief of Cabinet had been captured, in which he says Santa Anna's arrival in that country is the great political event of the day.

A nucleus for the establishment of the American division has been established, and recruiting is progressing rapidly.

The New Orleans Convention—Letter from the President to Governor Wells—Governor Wells' Reply.

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, WASHINGTON, July 21, 1866.—To His Excellency Governor Wells:—I have been advised that you have issued a proclamation convening the Convention elected in 1864. Please inform me under and by what authority this has been done, and by what authority this Convention can assume to represent the whole people of the State of Louisiana. ANDREW JOHNSON.

The Governor's reply is as follows:

STATE OF LOUISIANA, EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, NEW ORLEANS, July 28, 1866.—To His Excellency, Andrew Johnson, President of the United States: Your telegram is received. I have not issued any order convening the Convention of 1864. The Convention was reconvened by the President of that body, by virtue of a resolution authorizing him to do so, and in that event for him to call on the proper officers of the State to issue writs of election for delegates in unrepresented parishes. My proclamation was issued in response to that call. As soon as vacancies can be ascertained they will be filled, and then the whole State will be represented in the Convention.

J. MADISON WELLS, Governor.

On Governor's Island there were several new cases and five deaths; yesterday there were nine deaths. On David's Island there were nine new cases and one death.

On Randall's Island, in Brooklyn, the epidemic is on the increase; yesterday there were sixteen cases and three deaths.

LOSS BY THE PORTLAND FIRE,

July 4th.

The total amount covered by Ætna Policies on property destroyed or damaged is $208,854, on which salvage will be about 5 per cent. Our total loss will not vary much from $200,000; and is being promptly adjusted and paid. This sum is 5 per cent. upon the assets, a figure but slightly exceeding our Government and State taxes, paid last year, or a proportion equal to a $5,000 loss for a company of $100,000 assets.

The necessity for insurance and the value of wealthy strong corporations, is forcibly illustrated by this fire. Several weak Insurance Companies are destroyed. Portland has a population of thirty-five thousand, was handsomely built, mostly fine brick or stone structures—protected and screened with upwards of three thousand shade trees—bounded on three sides by water—indeed, literally, almost rising from the ocean—and with a good steam fire department—yet it has $10,000,000 property consumed in a few hours—upon a holiday when its people are least occupied, from the very insignificant cause of a contemptible fire cracker.

Remember the trifling origin of fires that sweep away in a few hours the earnings of years. Consider your best interests, and give the Ætna Agent a call if you need proper insurance security. Policies issued at fair terms.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

THURSDAY, August 2, 1866.

The New York stock quotations to-day, as received by Mr. P. R. Mertz, were as follows: Gold, 148¾@148; 1881s, 109½; old 5-20s, 108¾; new ditto, 105¾@105⅞; 10-40s, 99½; 7-30s, 104½@104⅝. Cleveland & Pitts. R R., 88½; Fort Wayne, 103; Erie, 69¾; Western Telegraph, 55¼; Ohio & Mississippi Certificates, 28¾; Chicago & Northwestern Railroad, 26¾; Chicago & Northwestern do Preferred, 67½; Michigan Southern Railroad, 84¾.

As will be seen from the above, quotations, government bonds ruled a shade lower today. 1881s fell off ¼; old 5-20s, ½; new ditto, ⅜; 7-30s, ⅛, and 10-40s ¼. Railroad shares are again looking up. Cleveland & Pittsburgh has advanced ⅜; Fort Wayne, ½; Erie, 3½, and the whole [illegible] Northwestern roads. Western Union Telegraph is lower. [illegible] monopoly is manipulated almost entirely [illegible] the officers of the company, and outsiders generally are left in the cold. Gold is weak and lower.

—By the China we have news of a very lively speculative movement in our securities in London, and there has been a general rise in prices. The latest quotations at the London Stock Exchange compare as follows with former returns:

	June 27.	July 12.	July 20.	July 21.
5-20s	64 @64¼	67¾@67⅞	69½@70½	70½@71
Ill.Cent'l	74 @74½	75½@76½	77 @77½	79½@79¾
Erie	38 @38½	39¾@[illegible]	42½@42½	44½@44¾
Consols	85¾@86⅛	87⅛@[illegible]	88⅛@88⅜	88⅛@88⅜

—A defalcation has just been discovered on the part of one of the book-keepers in one of the New York banks, (name not given,) which has been running some ten years, and is said now to amount to about one half of the capital stock of the bank. It is stated that the New York city bank in question paid the defaulting clerk a salary of $800 per annum, and recently advanced it to $1200, a sum wholly inadequate to support the family of a person qualified for a responsible position of trust in a city bank, with opportunities to steal a quarter of a million. These preposterously low salaries are a premium on rascality, and the banks that pay them ought to discontinue business if they cannot afford proper compensation to those in their employment.

—The Receiver of the Merchants' National Bank at Washington, has brought suit in the United States Circuit Court against one of the New York city banks for the recovery of $300,000 of the securities of the exploded Washington concern. The New York bank loaned $150,000 to the Washington bank, and $50,000 to its President, individually, on the post notes of the bank at 15, 30, 45 and 60 days' date on the pledge of collateral. The National Bank Act prohibits the issue of such post notes. One of the notes of $50,000 was paid off, but the New York bank holds all the collateral for the remaining $150,000, only $100,000 being due from the Washington bank. The Receiver claims the restitution of all the securities.

New York Stock and Money Market.

NEW YORK, August 2.—The money market continues abundantly supplied with money, and the demand is readily met at 4@5 per cent. on call, with the exceptance of transactions at 3 per cent; prime discounts range from 5½ to 6½. The market for Exchange is dull and declining. Bankers bills are quoted at 1,08@1,08⅝. The Gold market closed at 1,48. The two extremes of the day were 1,47⅝@1,49½. Cash Gold was loaned at 1½ per cent, but towards the close it could be borrowed flat. Government Securities were firm this evening, at the advance of the morning, with a fair business. The following were the closing prices: Five-Twenty Coupons, 1865, 1,06⅞@1,06¾; Coupons, Ten-Forties, 99@99¼; July Seven-Thirties, 1,04½@1,04⅝.

We understand that the Secretary of the Treasury has decided to stop the conversion of the Seven-Thirty notes into the Five-Twenties of 1866, except for the notes falling due August 15th, 1867.

The stock market was firmer at the last open board, with a fair demand for the leading stocks. After the call, there was considerable activity in the long room, and there was a further advance in prices, making the market nearly up to the highest point of the day. Ohio certificates took a start upwards and sold at 29¼. The bonds issued to Government in aid of the Pacific Railroad, are becoming favorite with parties desiring a long investment, and Messrs Cisco & Son have just negotiated the sale of $32,000 of the Union Pacific Railroad, and $320,000 of the Atchison and Pike's Peak Branch at 98. These bonds were taken by two financial institutions. At the afternoon board the Petroleum stocks were generally firm, with considerable activity in Downeville. Petroleum and money stocks, second board: Bennehoff Run, 700, 400, do 770, 100@775, 100 do, 765, 100 do, 755, 500; Pithole Creek, 229, 100; United States, 725.

Mining stocks: 200 shares, South & Par, 9,50; 1,000; Downeville, 90, 3,000 do, 96; 8,500 do, 97; 2,900 do 97; 1,500, Gunnall gold, 1,05 2 70, do 1,05; 2,00 do, 1,05, 5,00 do, 1,06; 5,00 do, 1,07, 5,00; New York gold, 1,25.

The Post's money article says: A very lively speculative movement prevails at the Stock Exchange to-day. The Loan market is unchanged. Stocks at the opening were generally higher. Governments steady but inactive. Railroad shares are active, especially Erie, Northwestern, Rock Island and Reading. At 1:45 P. M., New York Central was 1,04½; Erie 68½; Hudson River, 1,20¼; Illinois Central 1,23¾.

The Commercial's money article says: At the morning board stocks continued very active, and with a few exceptions, the railroad list was about ½ per cent. higher. There are many outside buyers in the market, and the upward movement of prices does not appear to have reached its climax, there being now as many buyers as when prices were 5@7½ per cent lower. Governments were dull at the board, at about yesterday's prices, except 5-20's of '64 which were ¼ lower, and 10-40's which advanced ¼ after the board. Old 5-20's were 108⅝ bid, an advance of ⅜, and issue of 1865 106¾ bid, an improvement of ⅛. The improvement of 62's is supposed to be owing to receipts of later quotations from London, but if so, quotations have not transpired. The advance of 5-20's of '65 is due to the decision of the Secretary of the Treasury to confine for the present at least the conversion of 7-30's into bonds of 1865, to any series of notes. This decision will be duly announced this week.

Money continues very abundant. First-class borrowers can obtain loans on call in round amounts at 3 per cent.; the bulk of transactions, however, range at 4@5 per cent. Discounts remain very quiet at 5@6½ per cent. Gold is moderately active; chiefly from a demand for Custom duties. There is a liberal borrowing demand from shorts at 1-16 to 3-32 per cent. per day. A strong combination has been formed for controlling a large portion of the Gold on the market at present. Foreign Exchange is quiet, and rates for Saturday's mail are lower.

Gold closed at 147¾; Mariposa preferred 27¾; Quicksilver 50¼; Erie 69; Reading, extra dividend B 3, 112; Chicago & Rock Island 103¼; Cleveland & Pittsburgh 88; do, B 3, 87¾; do, B 10, 88; Cleveland & Toledo 116⅝@147; Chicago & North Western 27¼; do preferred 67½; Marietta & Cincinnati, 1 P, 42¼.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
THURSDAY, August 2, 1866.

The general markets continue quiet and very dull, the demand for all the leading commodities being very much restricted, as both consumers and retailers are buying very sparingly, in consequence of a prevailing belief that values will still further depreciate.

GROCERIES—Sugars are firm but without quotable change; Raw Sugars may be quoted at 11½ to 14½, as to quality; hard refined, 18; soft do, 16½@17. Coffee is quoted firm at 26 to 30 for fair to strictly prime. Molasses 80 to 85, for prime to choice Porto Rico, and $1,15 to $1,20 for New Orleans. Rangoon Rice 10½@11.

GRAIN—Wheat is dull and drooping; sale of 262 bags No. 1 Spring at $2,08; and 1 car Club at $2,09. Oats in good supply and dull; sales of No. 1 Chicago at 44@45, and prime white at 50 to 52. No movement in Rye or Barley. Corn is dull and nominal at 75 to 80.

FLOUR—Continues quiet and a little dull, but unchanged. Sales from store at $10 to $10,50 for Spring Wheat, $11 to $11,50 for half Spring and half Winter; and $12 to $12,50 for good to choice brands of Winter Wheat. We are cognizant of $10,25 having been offered for a round lot of 100 bbls of "Bartlett's" on track, and refused—$10,50 asked. Rye Flour is dull at $6,50, and Cornmeal is still quoted at $4.

PROVISIONS— Bacon is firm with a fair demand at 17½ to 17¾ for Shoulders; 19½@20 for Ribbed Sides; 23 for Plain Hams and 25½@26 for Sugar Cured do. Lard is dull at 21@22. Mess Pork is quoted at $33,50, and Dried Beef at 27½@28.

POTATOES—Quiet and unchanged, with a supply fully equal to the demand; regular sales from store at $3 to $3,25 per bbl.

[illegible]—Continue dull and in very good supply [illegible] reported.

APPLES—Prime ripe Apples are in demand, and would sell at $4 to $5 per bbl, but there are none of any consequence in this market.

CHEESE—Is dull but unchanged at 15@16 for Western Reserve, and 16@17 for Hamburg.

HAY—Is not coming in very freely, though the demand is only moderate and prices remain unchanged at $20 to $25 per ton, as to quality.

PITTSBURGH PETROLEUM MARKET

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
THURSDAY, August 2, 1866.

CRUDE—There was again considerable excitement in the Crude market to-day, there being quite a spirited demand for oil, on the spot as well as to arrive, but the extreme views of holders has a tendency to retard operations. We have sales of 1400 bbls reported, in lots, at 13½, bbls returned, and it was rumored that there had been some few small sales at 14. For future delivery there is considerable inquiry, but sellers generally, refuse to contract, owing to the uncertainty of navigation, and besides, some of them entertain the opinion that by holding off they will be enabled to realize better prices. Packages included, quotations may be fairly given at 18 to 18½. At Oil City the market is reported greatly excited, and prices have still further advanced, crude being quoted at $3,75 to $4 per bbl at that point. Whether sales can be effected at these quotations we are not prepared to state.

REFINED—There is no abatement in the demand for bonded oil, on the spot as well as for future delivery, and the market is so excited and unsettled, that it is difficult to give an accurate and satisfactory report of the trade. We can report sales of 1000 bbls for September delivery, in Philadelphia, at 42½, 500 do for same month, at 42¾, and 500 for December, at 46. We heard of orders to buy for September at 43 to 43½, and there was a sale of 1500 bbls, on the spot, in Philadelphia, yesterday (Wednesday) at 41. Late in the day, the market was reported a little "offish" in the east, and buyers were asking for a reduction, but as there is very little offering, it is probable that prices will be sustained, or else there will be but very little done for the next few days.

ARRIVALS—The arrivals of oil by the Allegheny river since our last report, were light, as will be seen from the following:

CENTRAL LIVE-STOCK MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE,
THURSDAY, August 2, 1866.

CATTLE.

The market for cattle was remarkably active this week, the transactions being larger than last week in the aggregate, and prices have advanced from ½ to ¾ of a cent per pound. There was an unusually large number of buyers in attendance, and with a pretty strong competition, comparative light arrivals and very favorable reports from the east, cattle of all grades sold readily at the advance, and the pens were pretty well cleaned, and buyers yet on the ground yet unsatisfied. Prime fat cattle may be quoted at 8½ to 8¾, and extra at 8¾@9. Stock cattle sold readily at from 6 to 7 cts, according to quality, and several small droves of bulls changed hands at 5 to 5½. The shipments east so far this week have been fully up to the usual average, and during the latter part of last week the exports to both Philadelphia and New York were rather larger than usual.

SHEEP.

The demand for Sheep was more active this week, and with slim arrivals and a short supply, the market ruled firm at an advance of fully ½ a cent per pound, as compared with last week. We now quote at 4½ to 6½, and these may be regarded as the extremes of the market. There was but one sale at the last named quotation, and that was an extra bunch of sheep, and cannot be taken as a fair index of the market only for that particular grade.

SWINE.

The market was very firm this week, and with a very good demand and a light supply, prices have advanced fully ½ a cent per pound, as compared with last week. We now quote at 10½ to 11 cents for good to prime heavy averages. In New York, Hogs advanced to 12 cts, gross, the highest point touched in that market for some months.

RIVER NEWS.

The river has undergone but little change since our last report, the pier marks last evening indicating about eighteen inches. The weather yesterday was cloudy and cool, with indications of more rain.

The W. A. Caldwell, from Cincinnati, and the New State, from Wheeling are the only arrivals, and the New State, for Wheeling was the only departure for below.

Capt. Wm. Dean informs us that the America, Camelia and Columbia are all laid up at St Louis, waiting for an improvement in business. Should the Mississippi get down to a low water stage, these boats will be wanted for the packet trade, and they are admirably adapted for that purpose.

We clip the following items from the Chronicle of last evening.

In consequence of Lock No. 2, on the Monongahela Slackwater being out of order, the boats in that trade will commence exchanging trips at that point to-day. The old line will run the Fayette and Telegraph to Brownsville and Geneva, connecting with the Gallatin, running between Pittsburgh and Lock No. 2. The Franklin will go on the ways for repairs. The Chieftain, of the new line, will run between Pittsburgh and Lock No. 2 connecting there with the Elector, running from that point to Geneva. The Chieftain and Gallatin will leave the wharf at five o'clock as usual, the latter boat also leaving each morning at eight o'clock. This arrangement will continue for some five weeks.

A large pic-nic party, composed of the members and friends of the First Congregation of Disciples, of Allegheny, went out on the Gallatin this morning. The party will go as far as Lock No. 2, where the day will be devoted to recreation and pleasure, returning by steamer this evening. A delicious cake was presented on the boat by the excursionists to Captain Carlisle, commander of the Gallatin, as a testimonial of the esteem in which he is held by those who are intimately acquainted with him, and who appreciate his sterling manly qualities, and his efficient and gentlemanly demeanor as a steamboat officer.

The Cincinnati Gazette of Wednesday says: The Mary Erwin, from Pittsburgh for St. Louis, had 28 tons freight for this place and 250 tons for St. Louis, whither she goes to-day. Pat Moran, one of her deck hands, while asleep, fell from her fantail on last Tuesday, at Pittsburgh, and was drowned. He had been married two weeks, and his widow had the mournful satisfaction of drawing his wages yesterday.

BOATS IN PORT.—Ida Rees, Barry Dean, Silver Cloud No. 2, Messenger, Golden Eagle, Mary Erwin, Kate Robinson, Pine Grove.

The towboat Shark came in from St. Louis yesterday with a fleet of empty barges in tow. She takes a full tow of coal to Memphis.

The Collier was preparing to start to Pittsburgh yesterday with a fleet of empty barges.

THE COAL FLEET FOR BELOW.—The following towboats are going down the river with barges and coal boats for Cairo, Memphis and New Orleans: The Baker with 9 barges, the Tigress 9, the Stella 16, the Hornet 11, the Shark 12, the Albion 7, and the Tom Jones 6, making a total of 7 towboats, 70 coal boat and barges, and 900,-000 bushels of coal.

THE JULY RISE.—Old river men say that the present July rise is the highest stage of water known in this month since 1855. It was an unusual stage of high water for the time of year.

SEMPER PARATUS.

PRO BO NO PUBLICO.

Yet they say 'tis a heinous crime the way business is conducted. Some say it is murdering the trade. Others say it is against his own interests. We don't believe it. Let us see what the true state of affairs is. The truth is this: That there is a new establishment, neatly fitted up, at No. 87 Market street, Pittsburgh, over which W. G. MAHAFFEY presides, and in which boots and shoes are sold at prices so low as to astonish the natives. Hear me [illegible] the prices of a few articles, while all other articles are sold correspondingly low: Ladies' Congress Lasting gaiters selling at $1.50; Ladies' Sewed Morocco Boots at $2.00; Men's Congress Lasting Gaiters at $3.50; Children's Slippers at 40c; Children's Morocco Shoes at 50c. A large lot of gent's prime fine calf balmorals and gaiters just received and selling exceedingly low. In addition to this he keeps any article in the boot or shoe line, and manufactures to order Ladies' Congress lasting gaiter morocco boot ladies' and gentlemen's fancy cloth embroidered slippers. Likewise gent's first class calf boots made to order $1.50 lower than any other first class house in the city. Lasts fit up to fit the feet, which we would advise every man to have of his own. Ladies' and gent's fancy cloth slipper uppers, silk embroidered, for sale. Wherein consists the crime. If in selling low, we plead guilty; and by selling low we expect to preserve our own interests, and make quick sales and many of them. Inviting you to call and see for yourselves we leave the subject with you.
